Dear Rabbi Kalmanowitz:

I want to thank you for your letter to the Director of CIA dated 10 February which enclosed the correspondence between you and Mr. Dorsey of the Department of State.

As you know, these matters come more under the jurisdiction of the State Department although, as Mr. Dorsey points out in his letter, there is little that the Department can do since the United States has no power to arrest an individual in another country or to request such arrest by another government unless he is under indictment in the United States for an offense committed therein.

Sincerely yours,
